

To Commemorate our 20th Anniversary in 2010 the Midhurst DFAS committee decided to support the Marianne North Gallery Project at Kew by adopting a painting. A ballot was held at the February lecture and members voted overwhelming for Japanese Persimmon or Kaki Fruit.

Copyright Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew. This is one of the 832 paintings completed by the artist Marianne North, and displayed in a 125-year-old purpose-built gallery at Kew. This painting has been adopted by Midhurst DFAS. To find out more about adopting a painting for restoration visit Kew's website www.kew.org/mng